MISSION TEAM: What a blessing it has been to watch the angels fly from the tree! Thanks to all who lovingly shopped for these little ones that may not have experienced that part of Christmas without your help. This year, we included Christmas books for the children as well as the adults that they may experience that great, true story!

During the holiday season, I receive MANY requests from various organizations. While I wish I could say yes, yes, YES to them all, it's just not possible. Most of them all sound the same, but recently I was so touched by a request that wasn't monetary or really tangible in any way. It was for the gift of time. Spending time with those less fortunate, with those forgotten and alone. It stopped me in my tracks! While the needs are great, the greatest is simply to spend some time with them. I was reminded of the times I've asked Ebenezer what we could do for them. The reply is most often, to come visit, come read a book, come have a party! So, while we celebrate by giving gifts to the little children, and food cards to the hungry, let us not forget to give one of our most important gifts, the gift of our time and attention.

Please return Angel Tree Gifts to the church on or before December 18th with the name attached.

Love and thanks to all, Gina and the Mission Team
